For Her

We all have women in our lives — moms, sisters, teachers, BFFs. Here is a variety of gift ideas at a wide range of price points so you can find the perfect gifts for the special women in your life!

🎄 The game What's A Dame to do? ($34) is the perfect party game for moms looking for a night out with the girls to hang out and laugh and de-stress. This game was created by two sisters, who ironically live just a town over from me. And you know this game was invented by women because not only is it clever and fun, but you don't even have to read the directions! Just go to their site and click on the video to see how to play.

This Transfer Bag ($36) is the stylish solution to lost lipsticks at the bottom of your purse. It holds everything and makes it easy to keep essentials organized. Better yet, if you're like me and change your handbag often, this holds all the odds and ends that are such a pain to transfer, making it simple to switch from one purse to the next. NOTE: The regular transfer bag is perfect for moms with diaper bags or women with large totes. For medium sized bags, try the Teenie Transfer Bag.

Lolita (a.k.a. The Martini Maven) hand paints beautiful martini, wine, pilsner, champagne, margarita, mojito and even hot beverage mugs. She has a gazillion adorable designs for every possible occasion. Her signature is a hand painted recipe on the bottom of each glass that is unique to the glass design. The best part is, Lolita's hand painted glasses come in beautiful hot boxes — conveniently wrapped! Now that's smart. ($25)
